Electrical Appeals and Code Commission Information

Board Purpose:	(a) Review of Electrical Code. The Commission shall, from time to time, review the Electrical Code and all resolutions and ordinances pertaining thereto and consider any changes which may be required due to the introduction of new materials, equipment or technology or which may be requested by the Chief Electrical Inspector, members of technical trades, contractors or the general public. Such changes as the Commission deems appropriate shall be recommended to the Council in writing. (b) Appeal of application of the Electrical Code. Any person aggrieved may appeal to the Commission a decision of the Chief Electrical Inspector interpreting any of the provisions of this Code covering the manner of construction or materials to be used in the erection, alteration or repair of an electrical system. Application for appeal may be made when it is claimed that the true intent of this Code or the rules legally adopted thereunder have been incorrectly interpreted, that the provisions of this Code do not fully apply, or that an equally good or better form of construction can be used. (c) Appeal of denial of license and/or registration. The Commission shall hear appeals from any person whose application for a license and/or registration was denied under the authority of this Code. (d) Appeal of revocation or suspension of license and/or registration. The Commission shall hear appeals from a person whose license and/or registration has been suspended or recommended for suspension or revocation by the Chief Electrical Inspector. (e) Other duties. The Commission shall have such other powers and duties as are provided by ordinance.
