Re: City of Oklahoma City Convention and Visitors Bureau Commission resignation

Dear Mayor Holt,

I trust all is well with you. I am writing this letter to inform you of my decision to resign from the City of Oklahoma City Convention and Visitors Bureau Commission (“CVB” or the Commission) effective December 31, 2018. Unfortunately, increased travel responsibilities and a shift in geographic coverage (related to my occupation) are the reasons for submitting my resignation.

It has truly been an honor to serve on the CVB for the past 5 years. At the outset of serving on the CVB Commission many told me that it was their favorite, they were right. I have thoroughly enjoyed my time on the Commission. Thanks to the visionary leadership of previous administrations, successful implementation of multiple initiatives, support from residents of OKC and tireless efforts of the CVB staff, Oklahoma City has quickly evolved to “an epicenter of everything a planner could dream” (as noted in a recent national travel planning publication).

I want to thank you, the Commission and the City of Oklahoma City for entrusting the responsibility of this appointment with me. Please know that I am deeply appreciative of the time you and numerous others have committed to the betterment of Oklahoma City. If I can be of any assistance in the future, please let me know.

All the best,
